

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

A medicinal composition comprising at least one compound which can interact with a target cell, the at least one compound being a glycoalkaloid of general formula (I) wherein: the composition is essentially without free sugars
5 of the type which inhibit the interaction between the at least one glycoalkaloid and a target cell.